

WEST BERGHOLT A.G.M. 2006 – 2007

Wildwood Colony Report .

Wildwood is full with 30 Beavers, closed for this year. The Colony has had another busy Year, with Outdoor activities , Camps , & Sleepovers,gaining Challenge, Activity & Staged Badges., in a varied programme of fun.

We have achieved this through the efforts of dedicated Leaders and Helpers and Parents on a Rota basis. Top of the list is Willow, Ruth & Kestrel, Jon, thankyou we could not carry on without you.

A big thankyou to all our Beavers who are so eager to take part in all our activities on Colony evening and other Events.

We now have a young leader, skye, Rebecca, willing to help us and train, and we have been Lucky enough to have several older boys working for their D..of E awards with more to start in the Autumn. Some of the fun activities enjoyed this year,including visits ,by a

Paramedic , Bee Keeper , The Exterminator !!!!!Swimming and food and games at

Sue Graham's,Hike to Hillhouse woods, and the old Church, . Map and Track at Gt.Horkesley,Highwoods Country Park Pond Dipping, Gilwell fun day, asked Cubs to this,

Fun evening at Gt.Wigborough for games and decorate Bone China Mugs,Conker hunt and Campfire in you know who's garden,a visit to Mercury Pantomime , including s Scouts,Cubs, and Rainbows,only about 110 !! Wildwood Discovery Park in Herne, Kent, where We were lucky to see the Beavers in their new pond and viewing lodge, Wed Beavers invited ,

Cubs and Scouts had a great day,invested new Beaver Scouts over a full Beaver skin,dead of course

The animal not the boys....

Where invited ,District events; Langham woods quiz trail,Carol concert at Gt,Horkesley , Centenary camp , and Planting and clearing in Castle Park for new Scout garden.

Some activities, singing, craft, creative growing, performing skits and plays,modelmaking ,

Run a marathon, had a knight tournament event with quests in cave of doom, Mountain of Evil, and much more Gory fun...
Wildwood had a very successful Friendship , Founders Day at the Orpen Hall . invites sent to all sections of the Group, by the Beavers , including the Explorer unit . also the D. C. of North District [who could not attend] also the members from the Radio , Scouting, who ran : Battleship games with 2 way Radio's, all the young people enjoyed
This so much. Drawn out for us by Helen Smith we have a sheet drawn of the day to Commemorate our Founder Robert-Baden Powell. To end the full day we had a Cake ,and sang campfire and renewed promises ,not a dry eye in the place.
Another great day in scouting, followed by yet another year to come, when I am Sure Wildwood Beaver Colony will have more Fun and Friendship.
Yours in Scouting.. Silver Cloud..
